Automatically rings your phone

Functions as a regular baby monitor. However, there are occasions when you need that extra freedom a regular monitor is unable to provide for example, when you are gardening.With the Dial Up monitor you can easily switch to the dial up mode

Complete peace of mind

- Pick up the phone and listen to your child
- Extend the reception range for virtually unlimited distance
- Indicates a continuous connection between the two units.
- For total flexibility
- For reduced interference

Ultimate mobility in and around the house

- When used as a regular baby monitor, in open air
- Rechargeable parent unit for minimum 24 hours of monitoring.

Convenience for you and your child

- See baby's sounds even with the volume off
- Provides the ability to allow you to talk to the baby
